EMA | Pablo Larrain | 2019 | 107 minutes | R (for strong sexual content, nudity and language)

Fri., Sept. 3 @ 8 pm | Sat., Sept. 4 @ 8 pm | Sun., Sept. 5 @ 3 pm

After a terrible accident fractures her family and her marriage, a woman sets out on a risky quest to reset her life, in this incendiary drama about art, desire, and family from award-winning Chilean director Pablo Larrain (Jackie, Neruda).

ON BROADWAY | Oren Jacoby | 2019 | 85 minutes | NR

Fri., Sept. 3 @ 5:30 pm | Sat., Sept. 4 @ 2 pm | Sun., Sept. 5 @ 12:30 pm

From A Chorus Line to Hamilton, Oscar-nominated director Oren Jacoby's inspiring documentary celebrates the resilience and creative dynamism of the New York Theater District with help from an all-star cast of stage and screen legends, including Hugh Jackman, Helen Mirren, Viola Davis, and Ian McKellen.

YOUNG PICASSO | Phil Grabsky | 2019 | 91 minutes | NR

Fri., Sept. 10 @ 5:30 & 8 pm | Sat., Sept. 11 @ 2 & 5:30 pm | Sun., Sept. 12 @ 12:30 & 3 pm

From Exhibition on Screen and award-winning filmmaker Phil Grabsky (Raphael Revealed, Cezanne: Portraits of a Life), blockbuster art documentary Young Picasso goes behind the scenes at the Picasso Museums in Malaga, Barcelona and Paris to uncover the origins of the artist's world-changing style.

ISABELLA | Matias Piñeiro | 2020 | 80 minutes | NR

Sat., Sept. 11 @ 8 pm | Special one-night presentation!

Inspired by Shakespeare's Measure for Measure, this award-winning festival favorite from acclaimed Argentine filmmaker Matias Piñeiro is a radiantly beautiful meditation on the complex relationship between performance and reality.

THE NOWHERE INN | Bill Benz | 2020 | 91 minutes | NR

Fri., Sept. 17 @ 5:30 pm | Sat., Sept. 18 @ 2 & 8 pm | Sun., Sept. 19 @ 12:30 pm

From real-life friends Annie Clark (a.k.a. Oklahoma-born Grammy award-winner St. Vincent) and Carrie Brownstein (Portlandia, Sleater-Kinney) comes a kaleidoscopic concert film that fuses electrifying performance footage and hilarious backstage antics with a deliriously Lynchian exploration of the shifting boundaries between authenticity and artifice.
