Attention: Rita Craig

Dear Rita:

Enclosed are the original and one copy of the 2021 Exempt Organization returns, as follows...

2021 Form 990

2021 Form 990-T

2021 Oklahoma Form 512E

Each original should be dated, signed and filed in accordance with the filing instructions. The copy should be retained for your files.

The returns were prepared from the information provided by you. As we did not independently verify the data, we suggest that you review the returns carefully to be certain there are no omissions or misstatements of material facts.

Instructions covering the signing and filing of each return are attached to your copy of the returns.

In the event the returns are selected for audit, requests may be made for supporting documentation. As our workpapers contain only a summary of underlying information, all pertinent records should be retained for at least six years.

Thank you for giving us the opportunity to serve you. We appreciate your business and the confidence you place in us. Please contact us if we can be of further assistance.

Sincerely,

Michelle Mann

Part III, line 1a:

Works of art, which were acquired through purchases and contributions since the Museum's inception are insured under the Museum's fine art insurance policy and are not capitalized and recognized as assets in the financial statements. Purchases of collection items are recorded as decreases in unrestricted net assets in the year in which the items are acquired or as temporarily or permanently restricted net assets if the assets used to purchase the items are restricted by donors. Contributions of collection items are not recognized in the statement of activities. Proceeds from deaccessions or insurance recoveries are reflected as increases in the appropriate net assets classification. The museum's policy provides for deaccessioning works that do not fit into the collections plan or that are of poor quality or condition. Any funds made available by the sale of unrestricted deaccessioned works are used for acquisitions to strengthen the collection.

Part III, line 4:

Special exhibitions, organized from the Museum's permanent collection or hosted from other organizations, are displayed on the first floor galleries. The Museum's permanent collection is displayed thematically throughout the second and third floors. The focus of the permanent collection is American art with particular strengths in post-war painting and sculpture, photography, studio glass by Dale Chihuly, and works on paper. The permanent collection also has strengths in European art and Nineteenth century American art. The collection advances the Museum's mission by permanent display of works of art for the enjoyment and education of the general public.

Form 990, Part I, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:

Museum accomplishes this mission through its many activities. The Museum actively collects works of art and displays them in galleries open to the public. The Museum's permanent collection forms the basis for special exhibitions on art historical topics and is used to conduct research and disseminate new scholarship to the general public. The Museum hosts special exhibitions organized by other institutions permitting a range of subject matter and works of art outside the scope of the Museum's own collection.

A diversity of educational programs-ranging from tours, classes, in-gallery experiences, and lectures-are geared to visitors of all ages. The Museum is accessible to individuals with physical and sensory disabilities.

The Museum Film Program collects historic and contemporary arts of the moving images in addition to being the only cinema in the region showing independent, foreign, and repertory programming. The Samuel Noble Theatre screens films every Thursday-Sunday.

Part III, line 1a:

Works of art, which were acquired through purchases and contributions since the Museum's inception are insured under the Museum's fine art insurance policy and are not capitalized and recognized as assets in the financial statements. Purchases of collection items are recorded as decreases in unrestricted net assets in the year in which the items are acquired or as temporarily or permanently restricted net assets if the assets used to purchase the items are restricted by donors. Contributions of collection items are not recognized in the statement of activities. Proceeds from deaccessions or insurance recoveries are reflected as increases in the appropriate net assets classification. The museum's policy provides for deaccessioning works that do not fit into the collections plan or that are of poor quality or condition. Any funds made available by the sale of unrestricted deaccessioned works are used for acquisitions to strengthen the collection.

Part III, line 4:

Special exhibitions, organized from the Museum's permanent collection or hosted from other organizations, are displayed on the first floor galleries. The Museum's permanent collection is displayed thematically throughout the second and third floors. The focus of the permanent collection is American art with particular strengths in post-war painting and sculpture, photography, studio glass by Dale Chihuly, and works on paper. The permanent collection also has strengths in European art and Nineteenth century American art. The collection advances the Museum's mission by permanent display of works of art for the enjoyment and education of the general public.

Museum accomplishes this mission through its many activities. The Museum actively collects works of art and displays them in galleries open to the public. The Museum's permanent collection forms the basis for special exhibitions on art historical topics and is used to conduct research and disseminate new scholarship to the general public. The Museum hosts special exhibitions organized by other institutions permitting a range of subject matter and works of art outside the scope of the Museum's own collection.

A diversity of educational programs-ranging from tours, classes, in-gallery experiences, and lectures-are geared to visitors of all ages. The Museum is accessible to individuals with physical and sensory disabilities.

The Museum Film Program collects historic and contemporary arts of the moving images in addition to being the only cinema in the region showing independent, foreign, and repertory programming. The Samuel Noble Theatre screens films every Thursday-Sunday.
